

2017 Healthy Schools Summer Academy

Doors open on June 14 at 10:00 am

Register Today

<http://www.healthyschoolsummeracademy.org/>

Eighth Annual Professional Development Event

June 14 – 15, 2017

Keynote Address

"Keeping the Health of our Youth a Priority"

Dr. Elissa Barr is a Professor at the University of North Florida teaching human sexuality education and program planning and evaluation.

General Sessions

- Breakout EDU (Escape Room)
- Educator Panel
- Youth Panel

Mental Health Course Special Offering

- Youth Mental Health First Aid Course

Breakout Session Topics

- Online Physical Education Network (OPEN)
- Art Education Integration
- Exemplary Sexual Health Education
- Green Schools and Environmental Health Education
- HIV/STD and Pregnancy Prevention
- Hope Integration
- Movement and Nutrition Education
- Physical Activity and Fitness
- School Connectedness For Youth At Disproportionate Risk
- Technology Integration
- Tobacco Prevention Education
- Values Neutrality

Resource Carousel

- Closing Activity- participants will have a selection of equipment, resources, and supplies to take home

Academy Welcome

Florida Department of Education
Chancellor Hershel Lyons
School District of Palm Beach County
Mr. Eric Stern

ACADEMY INFORMATION

LOCATION

Safe Schools Institute
1790 Spanish River Blvd.
Boca Raton, FL 33431

COST

Summer Academy $60
Youth Mental Health First Aid Course $30

- * In-service Points Available
- * Lunches and Healthy Snacks
- * Resource Carousel

HOTEL

Embassy Suites by Hilton
Boca Raton $116 per night
661 NW 53rd Street, Boca Raton, FL 33487
Call hotel at 561-994-8200
Mention group code: HSA or Healthy
School Summer Academy

REGISTRATION

Participants and Exhibitors
<http://www.healthyschoolsummeracademy.org/>

LUNCH PROVIDED

Jason's Deli

The Summer Academy is for Health and Physical Educators, School Counselor and Nurses, Health Services, School and District Administrators, and all stakeholders committed to the health and wellness of Florida youth.